KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR LIFE

Worthy State Deputy and Worthy Vice Supreme Master,

This fall, two of the most important programs sponsored by Knights of Columbus will be our nonpartisan voter registration drive and our Get Out the Vote program.

Voting is the right and responsibility of every U.S. citizen. Unfortunately, people often look at voting as a chore with little consequence. We must help change this attitude.

Contact each district master, district deputy, grand knight and faithful navigator in your jurisdiction/province and impress upon them the importance participating in our voter programs. These important initiatives are being conducted through September and October and up to Election Day 2018.

To learn more about how to participate in our voter registration drive, including step by step instructions, visit the Officers' Desk Reference and select Nonpartisan Voter Registration Program under the "Fraternal Programs" tab.

You will also receive a link to an on-demand fraternal training webinar in the next week so that you can review how the registration program works and how you can manage your jurisdiction's/province's participation. Also review the Catholic Citizenship and Public Policy and Guidelines for Political Activity entries under the Political Issues tab of the Officers' Desk Reference.

Information on the Get Out the Vote program is available at kofc.org/vote.

In addition, Voter Registration (#10401) and Get Out the Vote (#10402) posters are available through Officers Online via "Supplies Online" link. You may also order posters by email, telephone, and fax:

Email: customersupport@webbmason.com

Toll Free: 1-833-591-7770, available M-F 8AM-6PM EST

eFax Line: 1-833-744-8321

Voting is a privilege. We look forward to your participation in this program to encourage every U.S. citizen to exercise his or her right to vote.

FYI.....

Ceremonial Baldric Usage

The Knights of Columbus ceremonial baldric was first introduced in 2005 as a replacement for ceremonial robes, which were expensive to replace, outdated and often ill-fitting. The distinctive ceremonial baldric positively identifies Knights of Columbus, especially when worn with suitable attire, the medal of office and name badge. The ceremonial baldric also carries no prohibition on public view. Therefore, use of ceremonial baldric is preferred and highly encouraged for wear at council functions, parish activities and community and civic functions.

The ceremonial baldric is available to be ordered from our official suppliers: In the United States: The English Company, 1-800-444-5632 or www.kofcsupplies.com In Canada: Enterprises Roger Sauvé, LTD, 1-888-266-1211 or www.roger-sauve.com

America is at a historic crossroad. Secularists are trying to push God from the public square. They reject His beneficial action upon society. But without God, where will our leaders get the wisdom to solve the great problems we face?

We must stop the secularist advance and pray to God for help. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. That's why we're launching the 2016 Public Square Rosary Crusade.

In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort said: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace; Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to console; To be understood, as to understand; To be loved, as to love; For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen.

Membership Drive

Our Membership Drive was a great event and was well attended by many Knights. Thank you to all the Brother and Sir Knights that stopped by the table to lend their support.

2018 Trunk-or-Treat

The 2018 Trunk-or-Treat was an enormous success! There were more children and families trick-or-treating than and more importantly, everyone had a great time! Lots of people hung around to visit and enjoy good company. The smiles on the kids' faces this evening was absolutely terrific.

Thank you, brother Knights, Ladies and families, for your time and contributions; this great event would not be possible without your support and an extra special thank you to Brother SK Dean Pitts and his family.

MIGHTY MCGIVNEY AT THE BAT!

10/22/2018

By Andrew Fowler

THE BASEBALL LEGENDS WHO BECAME PART OF ANOTHER TEAM, THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

With the World Series underway, here is a fun fact: Venerable Father Michael McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus, played ball. And if one game is any indication, he was pretty good.

Father McGivney is hardly alone. Plenty of baseball legends have been active members of the Knights of Columbus.

These stars of the diamond applied the Knights' core principles – charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism – that stretch over a century. But who are these legends? You'll never guess!

If we were in a fantasy league, this would be our starting line-up:

Manager: Connie Mack

Mack played for the Washington Nationals, Buffalo Bisons, and Pittsburgh Pirates during his 10-year career as a catcher; but he is more known for his over 50 years as a manager, compiling records for the most managerial wins (3,731), losses (3,948) and games managed (7,679). He won five World Series titles – the third most by any manager - coaching the Philadelphia Athletics to championship wins in 1910, 1911, 1913, 1929, and 1930. He was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, New York in 1937

Pitcher: Ron Guidry

Called "Louisiana Lightning" and "Gator," Guidry played his entire 14-year career with the New York Yankees, from 1975 to 1988. In 1978, he won the AL Cy Young Award after going 25-3, while posting a 1.74 ERA, and was elected to the All-Star team. Over his career, he was a 4-time All-Star (1978, 1979, 1982, 1983), a two-time World Series champion, and had his number retired by the New York Yankees.

Catcher: Mike Sweeney

Drafted by the Kansas City Royals as a catcher, Mike Sweeney – a 5-time All-Star (2000-2003, 2005) – also filled in at first base and as a designated hitter. He would go on to be the Royals’ captain from 2003 to 2007, and was inducted into the team’s hall of fame. He hit .297 after 16 years in the majors, and amassed over 1,500 hits. On being a Knight, Sweeney said, “It was like putting on the armor of God. But I love the Knight’s message. You put on the armor, but you do things in Christ to raise his name not yours.”

First Base: Gil Hodges

Hodges played a majority of his 18-year career with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers from 1943 to 1961, and then finished his career with the New York Mets in 1963. During that span, Hodges was an 8-time All-Star (1949-1955, 1957), won two World Series titles in 1955 and 1959, and hit four home runs in one game on Aug. 31, 1950. He went on to manage, and win a World Series with the “Amazin’ Mets” in 1969. His number is retired and he was inducted into the New York Mets Hall of Fame.

Second Base: Johnny Evers

One of baseball’s most famous poems – “Baseball’s Sad Lexicon” – is about one of the game’s fabled double-play combination: Tinker to Evers to Chance. A three time World Series champion (1907, 1908, 1914), National League MVP (1914) and Hall of Famer, Johnny Evers played second base for the Chicago Cubs, Boston Braves and Philadelphia Phillies during his 27-year career. During World War I, Evers – a member of Troy (New York) Council 176 – was commissioned by the Knights of Columbus on War Activities as an athletic director of the K of C “Huts.” As director, he organized baseball games for the troops. “Believe me, I’m mighty glad the Knights of Columbus have accepted my offer,” Evers said in the Daily News, June 5, 1918. “I feel as though I can do great work in France.”

Shortstop: Hughie Jennings

“Ee-Yah” Hughie Jennings was a professional player, coach and manager from 1891 to 1925, winning three National League championships with the Baltimore Orioles and then two World Series as a coach with the New York Giants (1921, 1922). As a player, Jennings hit .311 lifetime and holds the major league record for most times hit by a pitch with 287. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1945 as a player by the Old Timers Committee. Jennings was a Knight from Pennsylvania, enrolling as a K of C secretary in 1918. He was going to be sent overseas during World War I along with Johnny Evers, but the war ended before his passport arrived. But at the time, The New York Times reported, “There is no man in the national game who is better known or more popular than Jennings, and he will be a valuable addition to the Knights of Columbus staff abroad.”

Third Base: Bill Coughlin

Nicknamed “Scranton Bill,” Coughlin played nine seasons in the major leagues for the Washington Senators in both the American and National Leagues, as well as the Detroit Tigers. In that span, he hit .252, with 972 hits, and 380 RBIs. But his claim to fame is pulling off the hidden ball trick at least seven times, the most in major league history. During World War I, Coughlin established and ran a school for umpires associated with the Knights of Columbus in Coblenz, Germany.

While studying for the priesthood at Niagara University, McGivney and other Connecticut seminarians formed The Charter Oaks, according to Parish Priest, McGivney’s biography. On May 20, 1872, the Charter Oaks faced the Mohawks, another seminary team. McGivney started in left field, implying that he could run fast and could throw the ball far. He also batted clean-up. McGivney scored three times in the game as the Charter Oaks routed the Mohawks, 23-6. The game was called in five innings. The box score for the game was published in Niagara University’s school paper, Index Niagarensis.

Center Field: Shane Victorino

The “Flyin’ Hawaiian” was an outfielder who played for the San Diego Padres, Philadelphia Phillies, Los Angeles Dodgers, Boston Red Sox, and the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim for 12 years. Victorino won 4 Gold Glove Awards (2008-2010, 2013), was a two-time All-Star (2009, 2011), and a two time World Series champion (2008, 2013).

His father, Michael, is a Past State Deputy of Hawaii as well as a Supreme Warden for the Knights. Shane is currently a member.

Right Field: Babe Ruth

George Herman “Babe” Ruth is the epitome of legendary baseball players. At one point, Ruth held major league records for career home runs (714), home runs in a single season (60), RBIs (2,213), slugging percentage (.690), on-base plus slugging (1.164), and bases on balls (2,062). He was also a seven-time World Series champion (1915, 1916, 1918, 1923, 1927, 1928, 1932), a 12-time AL home run leader, and a member of the first inducted class into the Baseball Hall of Fame. These only scratch the surface of his accomplishments.

And he was a member of the Knights of Columbus. A lifelong Catholic, Ruth joined the Order in 1919. He often visited orphanages, schools and hospitals during and after his major league career. A year before his death, he established the Babe Ruth Foundation for destitute children. His dedication to charity – the first principle of the Knights of Columbus - would go on to impact millions of lives, especially children.

Not a fan of these picks? No worries! There are more choices, including:

John McGraw: Third Baseman/Manager

McGraw is best known as managing the New York Giants to three World Series championships (1905, 1921, 1922) in his Hall of Fame career. He ranks second overall behind Connie Mack for managerial wins with 2,763 and held the record for most ejections until Bobby Cox surpassed him in 2007. As a player, he batted .334 and led the National League in runs two years (1898, 1899).

Fred Clarke: Outfielder/Manager

During Clarke’s Hall of Fame career with the Louisville Colonels and the Pittsburgh Pirates, he amassed 2,672 hits and batted over .300 in 11 seasons. As a player-manager, he led the Pirates to four pennants and won the World Series against the Detroit Tigers in 1909.

Danny Murtaugh: Second Base/Manager

In his rookie season, Murtaugh led the National League in stolen bases, but his career was soon interrupted after he joined the U.S. Army to fight during World War II. After returning in 1946 and ending his career as a player in 1951, Murtaugh went on to manage the Pittsburgh Pirates to two World Series championships (1960, 1971) and posted a .540 winning percentage.

Tom Kelly: First base/Manager

Kelly only played in the majors for a few months with the Minnesota Twins in 1981, but in 1986 he was hired as the team’s manager. Kelly managed the team to two World Series titles (1987, 1991).

Darrell Miller: Catcher/Outfielder

Miller played his entire, four year career with the California Angels from 1984 to 1988, hitting .241 with 8 home-runs and 35 RBIs. He is the brother of Basketball Hall of Fame members Cheryl Miller and Reggie Miller.

Craig Stammen: Pitcher

Stammen is a pitcher for the San Diego Padres. He previously played for the Washington Nationals from 2009 to 2015. Stammen has recorded 531 strikeouts, posted a 3.68 ERA, and has a win-loss record of 36-30.

Mark Kotsay: Outfielder

During his 17 years in the majors from 1997 to 2013, Kotsay finished with a .276 batting average, 127 home runs, 1,784 hits and 720 RBIs. He is currently the quality control coach for the Oakland Athletics.

Jim O'Rourke: Outfielder/Catcher/First Base

O'Rourke was the first player to hit safely in the National League when it was founded in 1876. He began his professional Hall of Fame career in 1872 with the Middletown Mansfields and finished in 1904 with the New York Giants. O'Rourke batted .311 and accumulated 2,643 hits and 1,729 runs. He was the National League home run leader in three seasons, hitting 5, 6, and 6 in 1874, 1875, and 1880 respectively.

Ed Walsh: Pitcher

During his 14-year career primarily with the Chicago White Sox, Walsh posted a lifetime ERA of 1.82, which is still a major league record, and he is one of two pitchers since 1901 to win 40 games in a single season when he did so in 1908. He led the majors in strikeouts in two seasons (1908, 1911), won a World Series title in 1906, and pitched a no-hitter on Aug. 27, 1911. He also has the second-best WHIP (walks and hits per innings pitched) of all-time at 0.9996 behind Addie Joss. Walsh was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1946.

Whoever you pick, the Knights' team definitely has a chance to beat any squad in a best of seven series.

Our home games will be at the old Yankee Stadium – the Knights did own the land to the ballpark from 1953 to the mid-1970s. And the game would be called by, none other than, the former Los Angeles Dodgers' sportscaster and fellow Knight, Vin Scully!

You know, joining the Knights is a real home-run! Here is how you can be part of our Hall of Fame team. We need free agents, like you. Join today.

The government's own definition attests to the fact that life begins at fertilization. According to the National Institutes of Health, "fertilization" is the process of union of two gametes (i.e., ovum and sperm) "whereby the somatic chromosome number is restored and the development of a new individual is initiated."

A quote from St. Padre Pio –

“The day that people lose their horror for abortion will be the most terrible day for humanity. Abortion is not only a homicide but also a suicide. Shouldn’t we have the courage to manifest our faith before those who commit two crimes within one act? The suicide of the human race will be understood by those who will see the earth populated by the elderly.”

NEW MEXICO ALLIANCE FOR LIFE 2018 VOTER'S GUIDE

New Mexico's state wide elections begin with absentee voting! Are you prepared to make an informed decision this election? If not, don't worry, New Mexico Alliance for Life's Voter Guide is here!

We've researched candidates' backgrounds voting records, endorsements and other relevant information so you can make an informed decision this election. This election will reflect a major shift in New Mexico: a culture of life or a culture of death.

Why This Election Is Important:

-  If Roe v. Wade is overturned by the U.S. Supreme Court, New Mexico could be in a worse position: pro-abortion extremists will pass a state law to keep abortion on demand up to birth and force hospitals to perform abortions across the state.
-  If we do not secure a pro-life Governor or state House, NM will become an unrestrainable pro-abortion state.
-  Anti-life organizations and their allies plan to push some of the most extreme measures in the nation at the next legislative session.
-  Pro-abortion extremism does not reflect the values of everyday New Mexicans.
-  Out-of-state pro-abortion organizations use dark money and resources to influence our elections.
-  In 2016, three New Mexico legislative races were decided by less than 100 hundred votes, one candidate won by just ten votes!

This election is so important-- life and death are at stake for generations to come. Please share our Voter Guide with friends, family and groups!

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify your venerable servant Father Michael J. McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be to the Father

Knight's Prayer

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
